

Gear List

Laundry service is included in our pricing-bring your dirty clothes up and our staff will wash/dry them for you.

Flashlight-It gets really dark out here and the ground is rough in many places.

Canteen/Water Bottle-Absolutely necessary to remain hydrated. (We sell them in the gift shop)

Hat/Cap –Cowboy hat or other hat with a stampede string (We sell both cowboy hats/stampede strings and ball caps in gift shop)

Special Clothing- Boot socks, two pairs of jeans, one sweatshirt, one light jacket, and one thin long sleeved shirt to protect from sunburns. Ladies (sports bra)!!!

Bike Shorts- Optional, but guest swear by them. They come in different depths of padding and sure do save your backside. (We do not sell them)

Toiletries-Lip balm, sunscreen, personal care items and anything you need for allergies or medication.

Alcohol- We offer a variety of domestic and imported beers and wine and have a fully stocked bar.

Boots- MUST HAVE TO RIDE! Cowboy boots preferred, other boots are acceptable, but must have a smooth sole and heel, not a deep ridged sole. Please try to avoid lace ups. Slip-ons are preferred.

Winter Clothing-Before May 20th and after September 20th the weather may be cold and windy, bring a warm winter cap, heavy gloves, scarf, rain or snow gear, warm pants, medium weight vest or coat and heavy coat.

Chinks/Chaps- Most cowboys wear Chinks. We are not in South Texas, no brush here. Chaps are not necessary but you are welcome to bring yours. Spurs and personal saddles are not allowed unless you bring your own horse.

Camera, Sunglasses & Swim Gear-Don't forget your camera to document those unforgettable moments. Bring cheap sunglasses just in case they get damaged riding and don't forget your swimwear to enjoy our pool accommodations. (We sell sunglasses in the gift shop)

If you plan to ship anything to the ranch, please note we will not be responsible for anything shipped through Federal Express. If your package is not received at the ranch and you shipped it through Federal Express, you will be responsible for tracking and picking it up.
